

After school clubs at Rowner Infant school

Through the use of after school clubs, we ensure there is a wide range of opportunities to deepen the experiences of our learners.

We have now extended our after school provision to include clubs run by school staff. The majority of these extra-curricular clubs are free so that as many children as possible can take part.

